

Make it in Germany

Website for international qualified professionals

www.make-it-in-germany.com

Work. Learn. Research. Start a business. In Germany.

New prospects: Make it in Germany shows you what options and career opportunities the German labour and training market can offer you.

Quick check: Whether you're planning to find a job, set up a business, or undertake research in Germany, this is where to check out the options for living and working in Germany that apply in your specific case.

Job listings: Here you will find a list of current job offers. There are links directing you to the employers' websites to help you find the details you need so you can apply straight away.

Visa: In this section, you will find an overview of the various ways to migrate to Germany.

Global contacts: Find the authorities and institutions that can help you in your local area.

Arrive. Make a home. Live. In Germany.

Integration: Feel at home in Germany and become part of our society. Get to know our country and its traditions better. The German language is an important key to successful integration.

Challenges: International qualified professionals report back on how they have overcome certain challenges.

Accommodation: From looking for accommodation, to signing the rental agreement, to organising the move – Make it in Germany shows you how to find a new home in Germany.

Schools and nurseries: Find out about the educational and childcare facilities available for your children in Germany.

Banks and insurance: Making sure you are covered – comprehensive information about insurance and retirement planning.

Make it in Germany services

Virtual Welcome Center: Send us your questions by email or use the chat function. The Make it in Germany experts are there for you online from Mondays to Fridays.

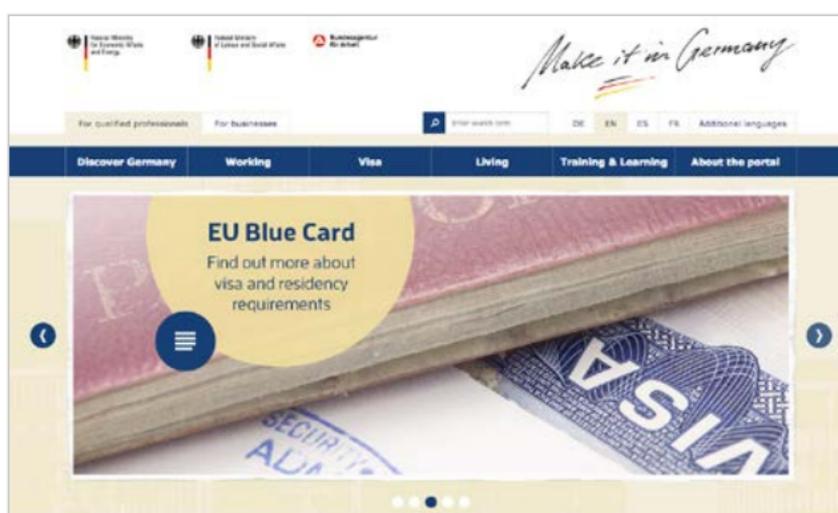

'Living and Working in Germany' hotline: Talk to us in person on the phone! Call our multilingual hotline (Monday to Friday) at +49 30 1815-1111.

Social Media: Follow @MakeitinGermany on Twitter to keep yourself up-to-date about working, learning, and living in Germany. You can also tweet your questions to our Make it in Germany experts.

Free app: Download the Make it in Germany app to your smartphone and receive push notifications about job offers that are tailored to your qualifications.

Our welcome portal for international qualified professionals:

www.make-it-in-germany.com is our official, multilingual website for international qualified professionals. The portal offers information to people planning to migrate to Germany – starting with preparations in the home country, to the actual move, to the first steps to be taken in Germany.

You are looking for a new challenge and seek to work or train in Germany? You are an employer looking to strengthen your team and hire an international professional? Make it in Germany has a wide range of information targeting:

- International qualified professionals
- Prospective international students and apprentices
- Employers and companies in Germany
- Institutions in and outside Germany

Federal Ministry
for Economic Affairs and Energy

Federal Ministry
of Labour and Social Affairs

Bundesagentur für Arbeit

Imprint

Published by

Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy
Public Relations Division
11019 Berlin
www.bmwi.de

Design and production

PRpetuum GmbH, Munich

Last updated

September 2016

Printed by

Silber Druck oHG, Niestetal

Illustrations

Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy

This brochure is published as part of the public relations work of the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy. It will be handed out free of charge and is not intended for sale. Distribution at election events and party information stands is prohibited, as is the inclusion in, printing on or attachment to information or promotional material.

The Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy was awarded the audit berufundfamilie® for its family-friendly staff policy. The certificate is granted by berufundfamilie gGmbH, an initiative of the Hertie Foundation.

